ACADEMIC CUSTOMS AND DRESS

The origins of many customs of the academic world are to be traced to the Middle Ages, particularly the eleventh and twelfth centuries when the first European universities — Bologna, Paris and Oxford — were founded.

In their original organization, the universities were like medieval corporations or guilds. In fact the word "universitas" originally referred to any kind of corporation. The students at the universities were equated to guild apprentices, and so the completion of this apprenticeship was celebrated by a "commencement" marking the beginning of their careers.

In the twelfth century, everyone wore gowns. The social and economic status of an individual was shown by the extra features, such as fur trimming, on the gowns. Cloaks with hoods were worn over gowns for protection in bad weather. Degrees began to be awarded in the thirteenth century, and different styles of gowns and different colors came to represent the various degrees and disciplines.

Over the centuries the styles of dress changed, and by the seventeenth century, the wearing of gowns by men had virtually ceased. But the universities, particularly those in Britain, continued to be conservative and strict in the matter of academic customs and dress. At Oxford, for instance, students could be fined for cutting class or not taking notes, and candidates for master's degrees had to swear that they owned a gown and would always wear it at the proper times!

The first American universities were founded on English models. However, the wearing of academic dress was not universal and ceased during the Civil War. The custom was revived in the late nineteenth century, and in 1895 an academic costume code was adopted which, with modifications, is still used.

Most American universities have the standard black gown with the hood serving to distinguish the individual institutions. Some American and European universities have adopted or preserved more distinctive gowns. There are three styles of gowns, distinguished mainly by the sleeves: the bachelor's gown, with long, pointed sleeves; the master's, with a squared sleeve, cut so the forearm is free; the doctor's, with bell-shaped sleeves with three velvet bands.

The hood is the really distinguishing feature of modern gowns, indicating the degree (the width of the edging band), the discipline (the color of the band) and the college or university (the colors of the lining). Today's graduates have hoods edged in white (B.A., M.A.L.S.), gold (B.S., B.L.S.) or drab (M.B.A.). Many faculty members will have blue edging indicating the Ph.D. degree. The faculty will be wearing hoods representing many distinguished institutions of higher education, e.g., navy blue and orange for the University of Virginia, orange and maroon for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, green and white for Michigan State University.

ACADEMIC HONORS AND SPECIAL AWARDS

Academic achievement is recognized at Commencement through a variety of honors and awards. Other awards were presented at the Convocation ceremony held on Friday, May 10. In addition, most academic departments sponsor chapters of honor societies which recognize student achievement in specific disciplines.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

The college recognizes the academic achievement of graduating seniors earning the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science through the awards of Summa Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, and Cum Laude, based solely on the student's grade point average at Mary Washington College. To graduate with Academic Distinction a student must earn at least 60 Mary Washington College credits on which grade points can be computed. The cumulative grade point average to be attained for each award is as follows:

Summa Cum Laude	3.75 or higher
Magna Cum Laude	3.50-3.74
Cum Laude	3.25-3.49

The academic achievement of seniors graduating with the degree of Bachelor of Liberal Studies who have earned a qualifying grade point average in at least 30 Mary Washington College credits is recognized as follows:

With Highest Distinction	3.75 or higher
With Distinction	3.30-3.74

FINAL HONORS

Final Honors are awarded at Commencement to students who achieved a grade point average of 3.75 or higher in their last 56 credits earned at Mary Washington College, at least 44 of which must be graded credits.

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

Students may earn graduation with honors in their major subjects. Each department establishes its own requirements for honors projects or theses. All departments require that a student intending to undertake an honors project have a specified minimum grade point average in the major subject and a minimum grade point average for all work taken at Mary Washington College.

SPECIAL AWARDS

The names of this year's award-winners are kept confidential until they are announced at the Commencement ceremony.

Student

COLGATE W. DARREN, JR. AWARD

This award was established in 1960 to honor Colgate W. Darden, Jr., president of the University of Virginia from 1947 to 1959. It consists of a medal designed by Gaetano Cecere, formerly of the Department of Art, and a cash sum. It is awarded to the senior having the highest cumulative grade point average. To be eligible for the Darden Award, a student must have earned at least 94 hours on which quality points may be computed.

Faculty

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OUTSTANDING YOUNG FACULTY MEMBER AWARD. This award recognizes an outstanding young member of our faculty, one who has been at the College from two to five years. Started in 1989, recent recipients (and their current faculty ranks) include:

1992	Larry W. Penwell Assistant Professor of Psychology
1993	John T. Morello Associate Professor of Speech
1994	Suzanne Sumner Assistant Professor of Mathematics
1995	Gregg Stull Assistant Professor and Chair Department of Theatre and Dance

GRELLET C. SIMPSON AWARD. This award, made possible by an anonymous donor, is presented each year at graduation to a faculty member in recognition of excellence in undergraduate teaching. Started in 1972, recent recipients (and their current faculty ranks) include:

1992	David W. Cain Distinguished Professor of Religion
1993	Sammy Ray Merrill Professor of Modern Foreign Languages
1994	William B. Crawley, Jr. Rector and Visitors Chair Distinguished Professor of History
1995	Lewis P. Fickett, Jr. Distinguished Professor of Political Science

FACULTY EMERITUS

Faculty members who have served Mary Washington College for at least 15 years and who have attained the rank of professor or associate professor are eligible upon retirement to be considered for emeritus status. This honor, by action of the Board of Visitors, is bestowed this year upon a distinguished member of the faculty.

LEWIS P. FICKETT, JR. Distinguished Professor of Political Science

Lewis P. Fickett, Jr. arrived at Mary Washington College in 1963 after a varied and successful career as both a lawyer and as a Foreign Service officer, in which he handled assignments in Algeria and the Federal Republic of Germany. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Fickett graduated summa cum laude from Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine. He earned a Ph.D. and an L.L.B. degree from Harvard University.

Dr. Fickett has excelled as both a teacher and a scholar. At last year's Commencement, the College recognized his pedagogical excellence by honoring him with the Grellet C. Simpson Award.

His distinguished record as a scholar of politics in India includes the publication of three books and numerous articles and professional papers in leading scholarly fora. He also participated in scholarly seminars on Indian politics sponsored by the Ford Foundation and the Smithsonian Foundation.

Dr. Fickett resides in Fredericksburg with his wife, Martha, a member of the music faculty at the College, and his son, Lewis III, also a graduate of Bowdoin College, who will matriculate to the School of Law at Boston College in the fall.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER DR. CHARLES W. SYDNOR, JR.

Dr. Charles W. Sydnor, Jr., is president and chief executive officer of Central Virginia Educational Telecommunications Corporation. In this capacity, he oversees public telecommunications throughout central Virginia, including public television and radio, and is also responsible for instructional television services and distance learning programs for 56 public school divisions from Pittsylvania County to the Potomac River.

Dr. Sydnor served as president of Emory and Henry College in Emory, Va., from 1984 to 1991. From 1982 to 1984, he was executive assistant to Governor Charles S. Robb, working as a researcher, speechwriter and coordinator of special projects.

A former history professor, Dr. Sydnor studied at Albert-Ludwigs

Universitat in Germany, and holds degrees from Emory and Henry College and Vanderbilt University. Dr. Sydnor has been published in numerous academic publications and has taught undergraduate and graduate level courses in Western civilization, the French Revolution, 19th-century Europe, the history of Germany and modern Germany.

Dr. Sydnor has been the researcher, writer or producer for numerous documentary films, including a 90-minute documentary made in 1976 on Adolf Hitler, which earned a prize from the American Historical Association as the most outstanding audio-visual work by an academic historian. Related to his research, he has been an expert witness in the trials of many Nazi war criminals.

Dr. Sydnor's other film credits include being executive producer of "Occupied Germany: The American Legacy," a 60-minute documentary on U.S. occupation policies in Germany; "65316: Survivor," a conversation with an Auschwitz survivor, and "Thomas Jefferson: A Complex Legacy."

Governor Gerald L. Baliles appointed Dr. Sydnor to the Virginia-Israel Commission in 1986, under which Dr. Sydnor chaired the Education and Holocaust Education Committee, which developed a model curriculum for teaching about the Holocaust.

From 1990 to 1991, Dr. Sydnor served on Governor Douglas Wilder's Task Force on Substance Abuse and Sexual Assault on College and University Campuses.

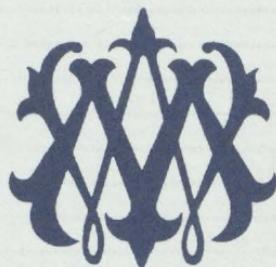

THE CITY OF WASHINGTON PIPE BAND

The City of Washington Pipe Band traces its roots to the United States Air Force Pipe Band, which was formed in the nation's capital in the early 1950s. Despite its fame, the band was prevented by Pentagon regulations from testing its skills in pipe band competitions at the Scottish Games. Eager to compete, the band's pipers and drummers combined forces with local civilian pipers in the late 1960s to form the Denny & Dunipace Pipe Band.

Pioneering a new "American" pipe band sound that combined the rich traditions of Scottish melodies with the bold presentation of American drum and bugle corps, the band won major prizes throughout the U.S. and Canada. Known increasingly outside the Beltway as "that great band from Washington," Denny & Dunipace formally changed its name to The City of Washington Pipe Band. It has internationalized its repertoire, playing a unique combination of tunes from around the Celtic world, including jigs from Asturia (in Spain), airs from Wales, reels from Ireland, and original compositions from the USA. Purists need not be dismayed, however, for the band remains at the top of its grade for traditional marches, strathspeys and reels.

ALMA MATER

All hail, dear Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to you.
High on Marye's Hilltop
You stand forever true;
Born in truth and honor
You ever more shall be,
The model of our future years
And all eternity.

Whene'er we have to leave you
We never will forget,
The lessons you have taught us,
And all the friends we've met;
And we your sons and daughters
Will hold your name on high,
So here's to Mary Washington;
Our love will never die.
